Girls in Science

2019-20 Essay Contest

Why are the outdoors important to you?

Do you feel inspired by nature? Do the outdoors help you understand science and the world around us better?

Write an essay about it! No more than 1-2 pages in length, write about why the outdoors are important to you!

The Girls in Science team will choose one winner, to be announced in May on Walking Mountains' social media outlets, who will win a t-shirt and a chance to attend the Girls in Science summer camp for free!

The deadline to turn submit your essay to Ms. Megan at meganc@walkingmountains.org is...
