

Easiest

Who is this for? Those looking for a relaxed pace, and educational experience, on some of Eagle County's easier trails.

What to expect: Mostly half day hikes, and easier full day hikes on flat & rolling terrain; can also include short hikes with moderate elevation gain.

Distance: ≤ 7 miles

Elevation gain: ≤ 800.

Moderate

Who is this for? Those looking for a great introduction to full day hikes in Eagle County. These hikes take you to some of Eagle County's more moderate trails, and include hikes to alpine lakes, summits with panoramic views, and along remote mountain creeks.

What to expect: Moderate full day hikes. These trails are well maintained and may include steady climbs that aren't too steep.

Distance: ≤ 8 miles

Elevation gain: 800-2,000 ft

Challenging

Who is this for? Those looking for a full day of hiking through Colorado's Rocky Mountains to many of our favorite destinations--including high mountain lakes & glacial valleys!

What to expect: Full days on trails with moderate climbs, interspersed with short steep sections; mostly well maintained trails.

Distance: 5-10 miles

Elevation gain: 2,000 – 3,000 ft

Most Difficult

Who is this for? Those looking to challenge themselves, and hike to the most spectacular destinations in Eagle County. High alpine lakes and rocky summits await those willing to tackle these long hikes and steep climbs!

What to expect: Over 6 hours on the trail, little to no flat hiking, mixed trail conditions including rocky trails and possibly some boulder scrambling, spectacular alpine views!

Distance: 8-15 miles

Elevation gain: >3,000

**Walking Mountains' public hikes are group activities, and we generally hike around 1.5-2 mph.*
